

The background of the slide features a large, faint watermark of the University of Toronto crest. The crest is circular, with the words "UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO" around the top and "1827" at the bottom. In the center is a shield divided into four quadrants, each containing a different symbol: a book, a ship, a beaver, and a lion. Above the shield is a classical building with columns and a pediment.

MEd